Madrid, July 14.

THE Court continues at the Eſcurial, whither the Marqueſs de Lede went from hence on the 11th Inſtant, to receive the King's Orders for making the Reform reſolved on among the Troops. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to confer the Honour of Grandee of Spain of the firſt Rank, on the Marqueſs de Ariza of the Family of Palafox. On the 12th died ſuddenly the Count de Caſtellar, whoſe Eſtate is fallen to the Count de Eſtevan who married his only Daughter. The King has promoted M. de Marſilly to the Rank of Lieutenant General. An Expreſs from Cadiz has brought Advice, that the Galleons ſailed from thence the 21ſt paſt for the Weſt-Indies, under the Command of Lieutenant-General Don Balthaſar de Guevara. This Flota conſiſted of 15 Sail, viz. four Men of War, 9 Merchant-Ships, and two Advice-Ships.

Copenhagen, July 19, N. S. On the 15th Inſtant the King declared Count Reventklau Great Chamberlain. The Queen of Denmark made her publick Entry the next Day into this City from Fredericksberg, all the Burghers being under Arms. The Proceſſion was begun by all the Counſellours of Juſtice and thoſe of State on Horſeback; theſe were followed by 36 Coaches of the Nobility, each drawn by ſix Horſes. The Queen's Coach was drawn by eight Horſes, and in it ſat the young Princeſs with her Majeſty. The King, who had come to Town Incognito, received the Queen at the Palace. There was a very Magnificent Entertainment at Court, above 60 Perſons dined with the King, and the reſt at the Marſhal's Table. The King ſupped that Evening with the Queen at her Houſe near the Palace, and went back to Fredericksberg the ſame Night. The Court went this Morning to Fredericksburg, where they intend to ſtay ſome Days; and afterwards 'tis ſaid the King will go to Holſtein.

Berlin, July 19. On the 14th Inſtant the King of Pruſſia returned hither from his Progreſs into Pruſſia. On the 16th the Lord Whitworth, the Britiſh Miniſter, had Audience of his Majeſty; and on the 17th ſet out for the Hague. M. Weſtphale, the late Daniſh Envoy at Petersbourg, having received Orders from his Court to go to Dreſden, to notify the Queen's Coronation, ſet out from hence ſome Days ago, and is expected here very ſoon in his Way back to Copenhagen.

Paris, July 26. M. d'Ormeſon, one of the Commiſſioners of the Finances is made Counſellour of State, in the Room of M. de Trudaine lately deceaſed. The Duke d' Aumont was taken ill on the 23d Inſtant of a Fit of Apoplexy, and continues in very great Danger. The Jeſuits have been endeavouring underhand to obtain Leave to eſtabliſh an Univerſity at Dijon; but that of Paris having got Notice of their Deſign, oppoſes it very ſtrenuouſly. A Courier arrived here Yeſterday in the Afternoon from Rome, with the News of the Pope's having named the Archbiſhop of Cambray and Don Alex. Albani to the Dignity of Cardinals. The Court has received a Letter from the Marqueſs de Pons, who commands at Toulon, with Advice, that the hot Weather had much diminiſhed the Plague in that City. They write from Languedoc, that the Lines which had been drawn lately round la Canourgue were extended, in order to take in two ſmall Villages in the Neighbourhood of that Place, which were ſuſpected of the Infection.

Cuſtom-Houſe, London, July 19.

On the 13th Inſtant Daniel King, who keeps a China Shop in Fenchurch-Street, London, was convicted before the Lord Chief Juſtice Pratt, at Guildhall, for Publiſhing a Counterfeit Affidavit in the Name of Samuel Todd, of Colcheſter, Mercer; at which Trial it appeared that a Letter, in the Name of Thomas Rand, of Miſſing, in the County of Eſſex, Eſq; was alſo Counterfeit, and that both the ſaid Papers, together with a Memorial of Daniel King, had been produced by him to the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, in order to clear 12 large Caniſters of Tea ſtopt by the Officers of the Cuſtoms.

South-Sea-Houſe, July 13, 1721.

Whereas notwithſtanding the ſeveral Advertiſements already publiſhed for the Proprietors in the 3d and 4th Money-Subſcriptions, to come to the South-Sea-Houſe and make their Claims of Stock for their Intereſts in thoſe Subſcriptions, that Stock might be carried to their reſpective Accounts for the ſame, many Perſons have omitted to make their Claims; the Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company do hereby give Notice, That Attendance will be further given every Day till the 10th of Auguſt next, in order to receive the ſaid Claims.
